Phillips Insurance Donates Hundreds of Books to Local Elementary School Through Link to Libraries Business Book Link Sponsor Program

Phillips Insurance Agency, Inc. is pleased to announce that they have sponsored the Anna E. Barry Elementary School in Chicopee through the Link to Libraries Business Book Link sponsorship program. The three year, $1,500 annual contribution will provide 300 brand new books to the Barry School's library each year. Five volunteer readers from Phillips Insurance will also visit school classrooms once a month, read to students and give each child a new book to take home and keep. At the end of each school year, student will have a home library of 7 books.

"We are thrilled to have Phillips Insurance sponsor a school through Link to Libraries," commented Laurie Flynn, President & CEO of Link to Libraries. "Their generosity will not only provide much needed books for the school library, but their presence in the classroom and their involvement with students will mean the world to these kids. We can't thank them enough for their generous donation."

"This is a great opportunity for our staff to see first-hand the impact our charitable contributions have on our community. Everyone here is excited to be involved," said Joseph Phillips, President of Phillips Insurance.
